We are pleased to hear from our users and welcome comments regarding WARN® products and services. However, our long-standing company policy does not allow us to accept or consider new product ideas, product design changes or other creative materials that we have not specifically requested. The policy intent is to avoid any misunderstanding when projects developed by WARN might seem to be similar to the work of others.

WARN makes no representations about any other Web Site which you may access through this Site or which may link to this Site. When you access a non-WARN Web Site, it is independent from WARN, and WARN has no control over the content on that Web Site. In addition, a link to a WARN Web Site does not mean that WARN endorses or accepts any responsibility for the content, or the use, of such Web Site. We reserve the right to disable links from the third party Sites to any WARN Site.

3. Legal and Privacy Policy. WARN understands the importance of privacy to our customers. WARN will not give or sell confidential or Personal Information about our customers to any third party not affiliated with the transaction, except as required by law, a government entity, or as necessary to provide WARN services to the customer. WARN respects data from our customers and treats it as an asset that must be protected against loss and unauthorized access. We employ information security techniques (including firewalls, access control procedures and cryptography) to protect confidential information from unauthorized access by users inside and outside the company. Access to customer information is limited to WARN team members who have a legitimate business need.

WARN reserves the right to use non-confidential data in any manner it feels is appropriate. You also grant to WARN the right to use your name in connection with the submitted materials and other information as well as in connection with all advertising, marketing and promotional material related thereto.
