Press Release

Ford Motor Company Gives
"World Excellence Award" to Warn Industries
Award is given to Ford's top suppliers

Clackamas, OR (7/1/09) – Warn Industries, a Tier-1 supplier of wheel-end disconnects to Ford Motor Company, has received a 2008 Silver World Excellence Award from Dearborn, MI-based auto manufacturer. This annual award, now in its 11th year, recognizes Warn Industries as an outstanding performer in quality, cost, and delivery.

This is the third time in four years that Warn Industries has been recognized as an outstanding supplier by Ford. This demonstrates outstanding effort and dedication by Warn Industries and its employees to its customers.

WARN CEO, John McCalla said, "WARN is again honored to receive Ford's World Excellence Award this year. Our exceptional employees work diligently to exceed our customer's expectations, and made this award possible yet again. We look forward to a continued, mutually beneficial relationship with the Ford Motor Company."

A total of 43 awards were given to 37 suppliers; Ford has approximately 1,600 total suppliers worldwide.
